

☐ future making DS4SI may 7 2026

Future-Making:

Collective Sensing, Scrying, Dreaming

A co-imagining space to hold each other in the midst of state violence, climate crisis, and general moments of uncertainty. There will be a communal divination session where we create our own modes of prediction—inspired by ancient modes of future-telling such as scrying, weather-based divination, tea leaves. To end, we will make a mini publication of our new methods and our co-imaginings.

Part 1 – 1–1.5 hour

Qigong, breathing, check in

Draw cards, share names

Q: What are you holding right now? Big or small?

Q: How do you know you know something?

Create 2–4 tarot cards with

- An image of something which makes you feel steady and sure
- An image of something which makes you feel unstable but excited
- An image of a kind of love you wish you could give a younger self
- An image/object/place from a dream

- Something your ancestors would do in uncertain times

K will scan them and make them into a little book deck!

kw slides to make

Bibliomancy: by books; frequently, but not always, religious texts.

Cartomancy: by playing cards, tarot cards, or oracle cards.

Ceromancy: by patterns in melting or dripping wax.

Cleromancy: by casting of lots, or casting bones or stones.

Tea leaf reading

Looking at the weather!

Scrying through glass, if I can find glass!!

Collective activity!

In groups or on your own—

Generate a collective question list, as many as you can think of!

We'll try to write 100 questions together about the future

Write them on balloons

In pairs or in your groups...

Choose 1–3 questions to answer

inspired by examples or make up your own, come up with a divination technique to try and answer your partners question. You use one that I shared or you can...
